LET US GOVERN

This year marked the advent of a system of government entirely new to Arcadia High, yet established for years in Community and National bodies. The unusual success which came about in only one year of trial, was due to the co-operation of almost all the students with the administration.

PRESIDENT

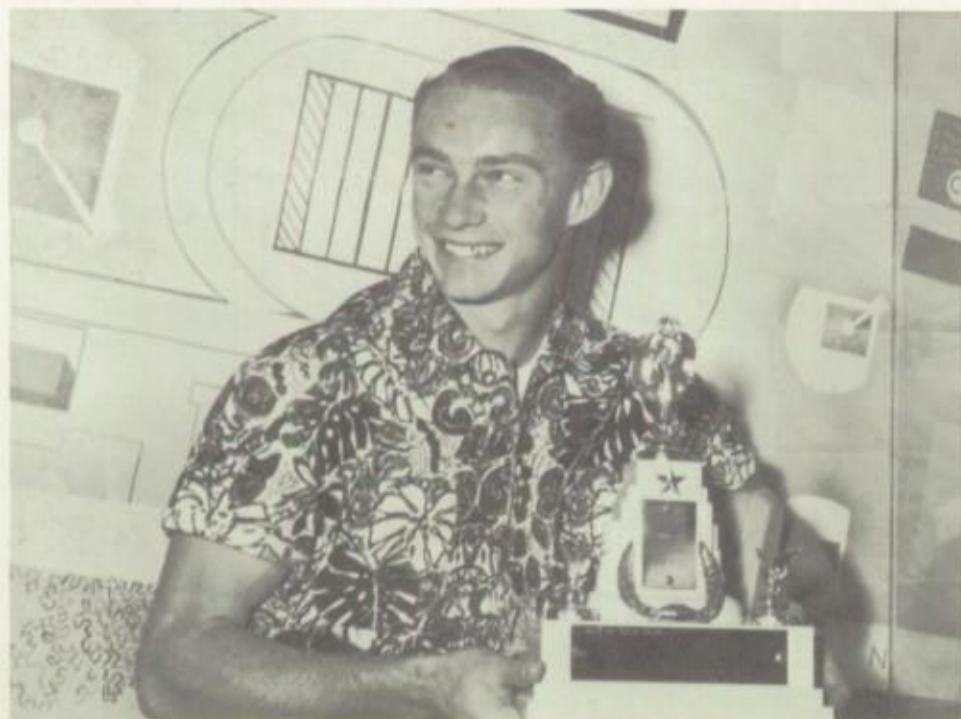

Heading our student government as ASB President, Marty Kordick led us through a successful and productive year.

As ASB President, Marty has ably served Arcadia throughout the year.

With a friendly smile for all, Marty has earned the high honor of being top man.

Clint has done much to unify AHS through our organizations. Here he is shown holding the coveted ICC Trophy.

As ASB Vice President, Clint Harwick's chief responsibility was presiding over ICC and the Advisory Board.

VICE PRESIDENT

Left to right: M. Kambitz, Pep Commissioner; R. Powell, Athletic Commissioner; J. Prestin, Buildings and Grounds Commissioner; M. Grant, Historian; S. Kennedy, Recording Secretary; M. Kordick, President; J. Cooperider, Corresponding Secretary; C. Hicks, Speaker of the House; P. Grimm, M. Crocker, Assembly Commissioner, P. Northcote, Treasurer. Not pictured: C. Harwick, Vice President.

ADVISORY BOARD

Seated: B. Irvine, S. Craig, K. Bunde, R. Duncan, V. Cuccia, C. Harwick, S. Kramer, R. Hunter, J. Bowen, M. Morris, L. Billman.
Standing: S. Dunlap, L. Hicks.

Seated in the cafeteria are the first semester representatives, conducting one of their meetings.

HOUSE

Speaker of the House, Charlie Hicks

OFFICERS

Pictured from left to right are: Sheila Sanders, Chaplain; Richard Duncan, Pro Temp; and Joan Wolters, Clerk.

A significant revision made in our student government this year was the formation of a House of Representatives. Selected from their first period classes, the members conduct meetings and introduce bills in the same parliamentary procedure as our national government.

House of Representatives—Second Semester.

REPRESENTATIVES

Officers: Joan Wolters, Clerk; Rich Hunter, Parliamentarian; Charlie Hicks, Speaker. Not pictured, George Woodward, Speaker Pro Tem.

Sandy Mickelson - President

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Under the exceptional leadership of the Girls' League President, Sandy Mickelson, the well-organized league has enjoyed a successful year.

Judy Bullock - Vice President

LET US LEARN

Population is important in any town or city just as it is in a high school. The city of Arcadia has grown in the past few years to a population of over thirty thousand. Our high school has leaped from about seven hundred students at its beginning, to almost two thousand this year.

SENIORS

President—Richard Duncan

As the school year of 1956 draws to an end, we pay tribute to those giving their last, long look to their Alma Mater. Ably led by their competent President, Richard Duncan, the class of 1956 has left a lasting impression and will long be remembered for their unlimited spirit and loyalty. Four years finally completed . . . such wonderful friendship . . . Senior Bench . . . Ditch Day . . . Senior Breakfast . . . Prom . . . and finally, happy, yet regretful preparations for Commencement. So much to remember . . . so much to look forward to.

Four fabulous years and then . . .

Welcome

ARCADIA

CHAMBER OF COMM

LET US BELONG

RCE

Our City provides numerous clubs open to citizens in almost every field of interest. Not only are there working organizations, but social groups as well. Here, on campus, we find one of the largest varieties of clubs available at any High School.

'56 Arcadian

The Arcadian and the Pow Wow are the two publications in the journalism department. The 1956 Arcadian, under the supervision of Mr. Barry Alexander, is the fifth yearbook published by students of Arcadia High School.

The Pow Wow is in its fourth year of bi-weekly publication advised by Mrs. Hazel Reegler.

Pat Keller
Executive Editor

Seated from left to right: M. Howe, P. Keller, B. Roberts, and B. Kay. Standing in the first row: N. Perrine, J. Delaney, C. Mendel, J. Wolters, C. Shelley, L. Flanders, B. Irvine, J. Fisk, and S. Hatter. Second row: J. Ruth, K. Tooley, L. Haserot, L. Jones, B. Hamilton, A. Carico, J. Rhodes, D. Merry, and T. Love.

Pow Wow

Lynda Jones
Editor-in-Chief

Seated from left to right: J. Martin, J. Yates, L. Jones, Mrs. Reegler, N. Helwig, and D. Yost. Standing: R. Duncan, J. Rollings, B. Gumz, J. McCoy, J. Bennet, T. Lemons, C. Strawn, B. Whitehead, P. Treece, T. Brown, J. Raymond, and B. Tross.

Members—Left to right—first row: E. Reeve, H. Perrine, L. Schoonmaker, I. Kelly, B. Young, M. Brand, J. Cooperider, and Mrs. Schaefer. Second row: P. Keller, J. Wolters, M. Smith, B. Rogstad, M. Bailey, P. Slough, L. Flanders, M. Morris, S. Kennedy, A. Smith, S. Mickelson, and S. Sanders.

KEY CLUB

Officers (left to right): B. Eldredge,
D. Daniels, R. Hunter, P. Gillespie,
K. Smith, D. Heilman.

These smooth-talking speech makers, under the direction of Mrs. Marie Carroll, entered oratorical contests and walked off with top honors. The Forensics Club is devoted to developing the art of public speaking through competition with students of other high schools in both State and National tournaments.

FORENSICS

First row: J. Rudden, J. Corradini, M. Talent, D. Knight, M. Ashover, P. Keller. Second row: B. Kressick, D. Lamel, V. Benidicti, J. Griffin, D. Hunter, B. Winn, P. Geller, D. Santo.

This year found the Jesters, directed by Mr. R. O. Wilson, once again synonymous with outstanding and distinctive drama. Long will be remembered those hours filled with laughter and suspense as we recall Wild Hobbie Horses and High Window when "The Jesters Present."

Left to right—First row—B. Whitworth, M. Crocker, K. Duntly, L. Cole, B. Geffney, Vice President; L. Billman, President; C. Carr, Secretary-Treasurer; M. Grant, M. Blake, B. Heitman, A. Sullivan, B. Footitt, P. Havens, Second row—V. Elder, P. Thompson, C. Hull, P. Slough, M. Baum, A. Banks, J. Cullen, C. Newman, J. Ames, R. Bottema, J. Matheny, C. Booth, G. Lily, D. Stepan, N. Burnett, C. Shelley, C. Wellington and Mr. Wilson.

Father on the rampage in Wild Hobbie Horses.

Suspense in its fullest and the Jesters Present High Window

Only one of the hilarious scenes from the comedy, Wild Hobbie Horses.

Acapella

"The Messiah" by George Fredrick Handel and Gabriel Faure's "Requiem" are the outstanding performances on the list of activities for the A Cappella Choir. Under the direction of Mr. James Neumeister, the A Cappella made several appearances in such places as Disneyland, service club banquets, and a Christmas assembly.

Ronnie
you and I have good bud^{dy} been pretty good school.
all though high school
I hope we remain that way. See you a SP^C
Dan Deans
(WTH PA)

Mixed Chorus

The Mixed Chorus, for the first time, participated in "The Messiah" with the Orchestra and the A Cappella. The musical group was conditioned for next year's step into A Capella by singing for various service clubs and similar performances. Mr. James Neumeister also directs the Mixed Chorus.

Boys' Chorus

The Boys' Glee Club is the organization which teaches young male voices to sing with a group and in several parts. It is the pre-requisite to Mixed Chorus and A Cappella. Mr. James Neumeister is the director.

Girls' Chorus

Girls' Glee has been formed to improve the tone quality and musical talents of young voices. These girls are preparing for Mixed Chorus or A Cappella Choir next year.

Orchestra

Under the direction of Francis J. Boyer, the Orchestra has taken part in many outstanding performances this year. Included among their musical programs were their presentation of Handel's "Messiah" and participation in the Southern California Music Festival.

Senior Girls' Chorus

Pictured above are members of the Senior Girls' Glee, another noted choral group on campus, also directed by Mr. James Neumeister.

I. C. C.

Left to right—last row—Mr. Bacon, sponsor J. Prestin, M. Brand, J. Lindell, R. Hunter, R. Powell, D. Heffner, and E. Reeve. Second row—A. Winchester, B. Geffeney, K. Wingard, B. Young, P. Slough, B. Knopp, and D. Harmer. Third row—J. Bullock, P. Keller, S. Cramer, C. Harwick, M. Siegel, J. Corradini, and J. Appleman.

The Inter-Club Council of Arcadia High School is the coordinating body between the Executive Council and organizations on campus. One of the most important projects engineered by the group this year was the planning and organizing of our annual Pow Wow.

Scholarship

Students who receive a minimum of three "A's" and the rest "B's" on their report card are eligible for membership in the California Scholarship Federation. Members who remain in the society for four semesters, one of which must be in their Senior year, will be awarded the honor of graduating as a gold seal bearer.

Ski

President: Ralph Powell

Vice President: Bob Allen

Secretary-Treasurer: Margaret Spencer

Sponsor: Mr. Acton

SKI CLUB

During the non-snow months, the Ski Club practiced the necessary basic skills on dry land. After these were accomplished, the club traveled to snow-clad mountains and enjoyed using their new techniques.

Lettermen

OFFICERS

President: Dean DeBenedet

Vice President: Kirby Smith

Secretary: Dave Pilmer

Sponsor: Mr. Putman

LETTERMEN CLUB

The athletic-minded boys in the Lettermen Club meet in the gymnasium and do various gymnastic exercises and watch athletic movies. Only varsity lettermen may belong to the Lettermen Club.

Junior Statesmen

President: George Woodward

Vice President: Dick Van Horn

Secretary-Treasurer: George Brokate

Sponsor: Mr. Smalldon

JUNIOR STATESMEN

Checking and running the school elections are the main services the Junior Statesmen offer the school. The members attend mock legislation, fashioned after the official state legislations, during the course of the year.

Rifle

President: Doug Byrkit

Vice President: Bill Laister

Secretary: Sharon Bingham

Treasurer: Stuart Roether

Sponsors: Mr. Lucas and Mr. Hoelsher

RIFLE CLUB

Fish Canyon is the site where the Rifle Club traveled each week to practice sharpshooting and gun skills. A safety test was given to all members.

Spanish

Vice President: Duke Evans
Secretary: Gale Grahm
Treasurer: Linda Brill
Sponsor: Mrs. Morgan

SPANISH CLUB
Students found opportunities for good times while learning, by going on various field trips to Olvera Street and Padua Hills. A float in the Homecoming Parade and a sock hop were on the list of activities for the Spanish Club.
President: Joan Griffith

Art

President: Dorene Meisch
Vice President: Charlene Mayne
Secretary: Donna McElroy
Treasurer: Denny Keyes
Sponsor: Miss Lynch

ART CLUB
These interested students know art is an expression of human experiences. Through the Art Club they are gaining an understanding of art as a part of our everyday life. They participated in the Hallowe'en Window Painting Contest and the Poppy Poster Contest.

Duchesses

DUCHESSES

Devoting their time to servicing the school, these future homemakers make up one of the most active clubs on campus. Their enthusiasm in school activities was expressed through their participation in the Homecoming with a float titled, "School Days."

President: Pat Peterson
Vice President: Marilyn Brand
Secretary: Trudy Gerry
Treasurer: Judy Johnson
Sponsor: Mrs. Isabell Beckman

Trouveres

TROUVERES

When there is a need for assistance in the planning of musical programs, the Trouveres are always on hand to provide entertainment. Membership requirements for the club include a minimum of a "C" grade average and the ability to either play a musical instrument, sing, dance, or do a novelty act.

OFFICERS:

President: Dennis Harmer
Vice President: Pat Lenz
Secretary: Judy McCoy
Treasurer: Janet Ruth
Sponsors: Mr. Boyer and Mr. Alexander

French

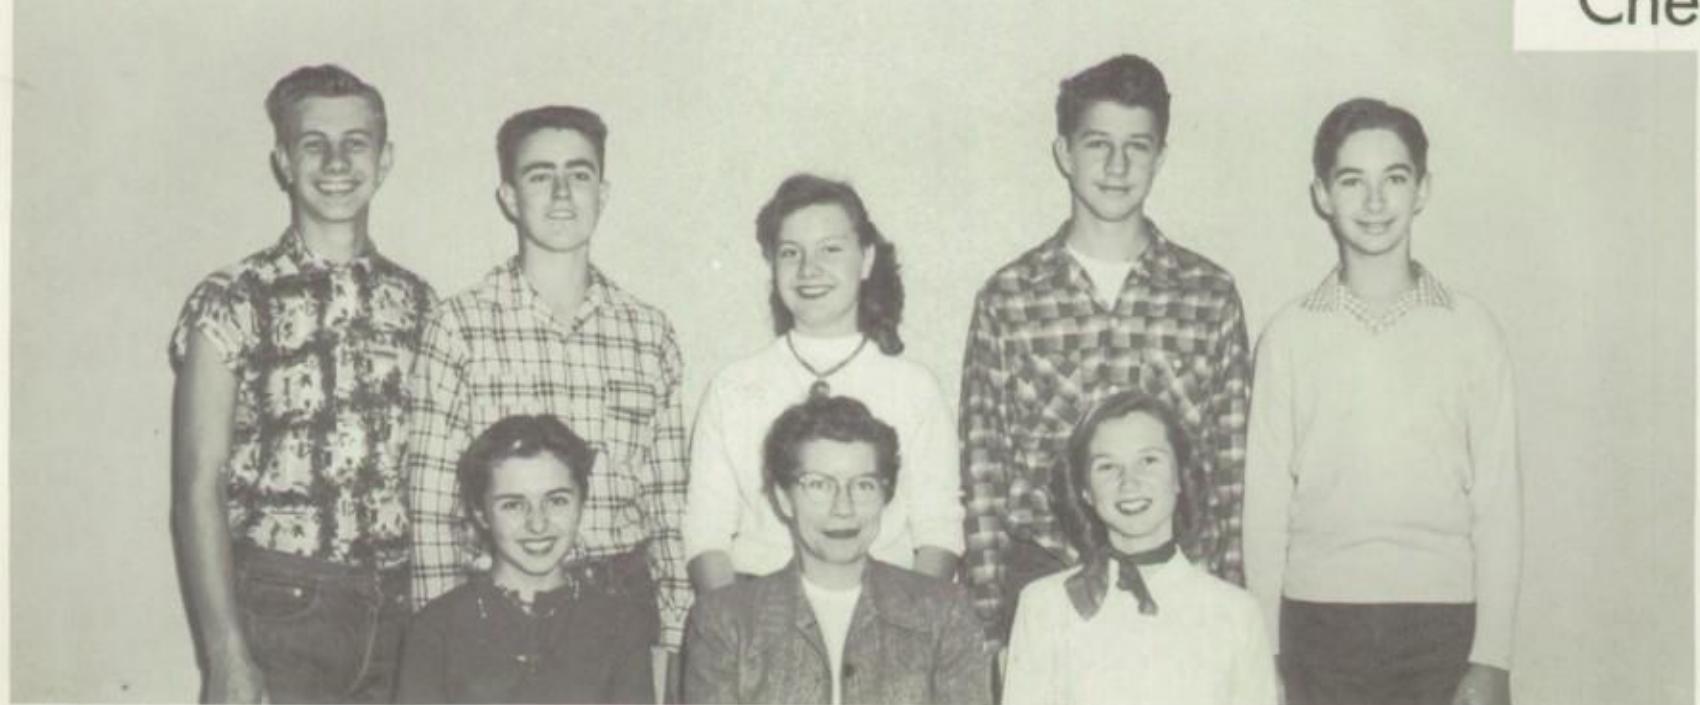

President: Karen Johnson
Vice President: Bonnie Geffeney
Secretary: Kirsten Johnson
Treasurer: Charlene Mayne
Sponsor: Mrs. Stoner

FRENCH CLUB

Students who want to further increase their knowledge of the French language and culture find this club very rewarding. Among some of their activities this year were the club's annual dinner, Christmas party and visit to French ships docked in the Los Angeles Harbor.

Chess

OFFICERS:

President: Richard Brock
Vice-President: Brian Knight
Secretary-Treasurer: Margo Ashauer
Sponsor: Mrs. Robinson

CHESS CLUB

Qualifications for membership in the Chess Club include an affluence of time and patience. Here, students learn and improve their skills in playing chess, and as members become more proficient at the game. They participate in chess tournaments.

Biology

OFFICERS:

President: Allan Pingle
Vice President: Karen Johnson
Secretary: Nancy Ford
Sponsors: Mr. Harver and Mr. Dancer

BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club offers an opportunity for students to increase their interest and knowledge in the study of plants and animals. Members take a field trip each month and bring back specimens to add to the school's museum.

Latin

OFFICERS:

President: Carol Hendrixson
Vice President: Dave Pratt
Secretary-Treasurer: Nancy Ford

LATIN CLUB

The activities of the Latin Club are varied, but the constant aim is to direct attention to Latin as it is found in current American life. The year's activities included a study of the states using seals with Latin or Greek mottos. Some meetings were devoted to Latin Card Games based on famous Romans.

Aviation

AVIATION CLUB

The active flight enthusiasts increased their knowledge of the air age by several field trips. Some of them went to the Glendale Airport and Long Beach Air Base. This club came through with flying colors.

President: Bob Fielding
Vice President: Don Dean
Secretary: Jerry Beschta
Treasurer: Mike Egan
Sponsors: Mr. Cameron,
Mr. Davies, Mr. Big

Science

In the Science Club, students are encouraged to promote their scientific interests and receive recognition for their talents. When not working on individual projects, members observe experiments, films pertaining to science and go on field trips.

Amateur Radio

A ham radio station, which is operated at meetings, is the feature of the Amateur Radio Club. Only members with call letters are allowed to operate it while other members study code charts in preparation for receiving their call letters. The club can contact such places as Illinois with its short wave set.

OFFICERS

President: Gary Tickemeyer
Vice President: Cliff Moore
Secretary-Treasurer: Lance Haserot
Sponsors: Mr. King and Mr. Cameron

Future Teachers

A newly organized club on campus, the Future Teachers of America, is designed to better acquaint candidates with the vocational opportunities offered in Education. Club members attend conferences held on surrounding college campuses and invite representatives from the field of teaching to their meetings.

OFFICERS:

President: Judy Dixon
Vice-President: Wendy Harris
Secretary: Gloria Geisler
Treasurer: Rochelle Kaplan

Weightlifting

The members of the Weightlifting Club know how important good physical condition is to excellent health. They work out at the County Park swimming, running, and lifting weights.

OFFICERS:

President: Dick Elliott
Vice President: John Stately
Sponsor: Mr. Calderhead

LET US PLAY

In Our City there are many recreations available, the most popular being the well-known Santa Anita Race Track. It is the center of many activities all year round, just as the football field of A.H.S. is important during sports seasons.

Volleyball is a lively game which can be enjoyed by all.

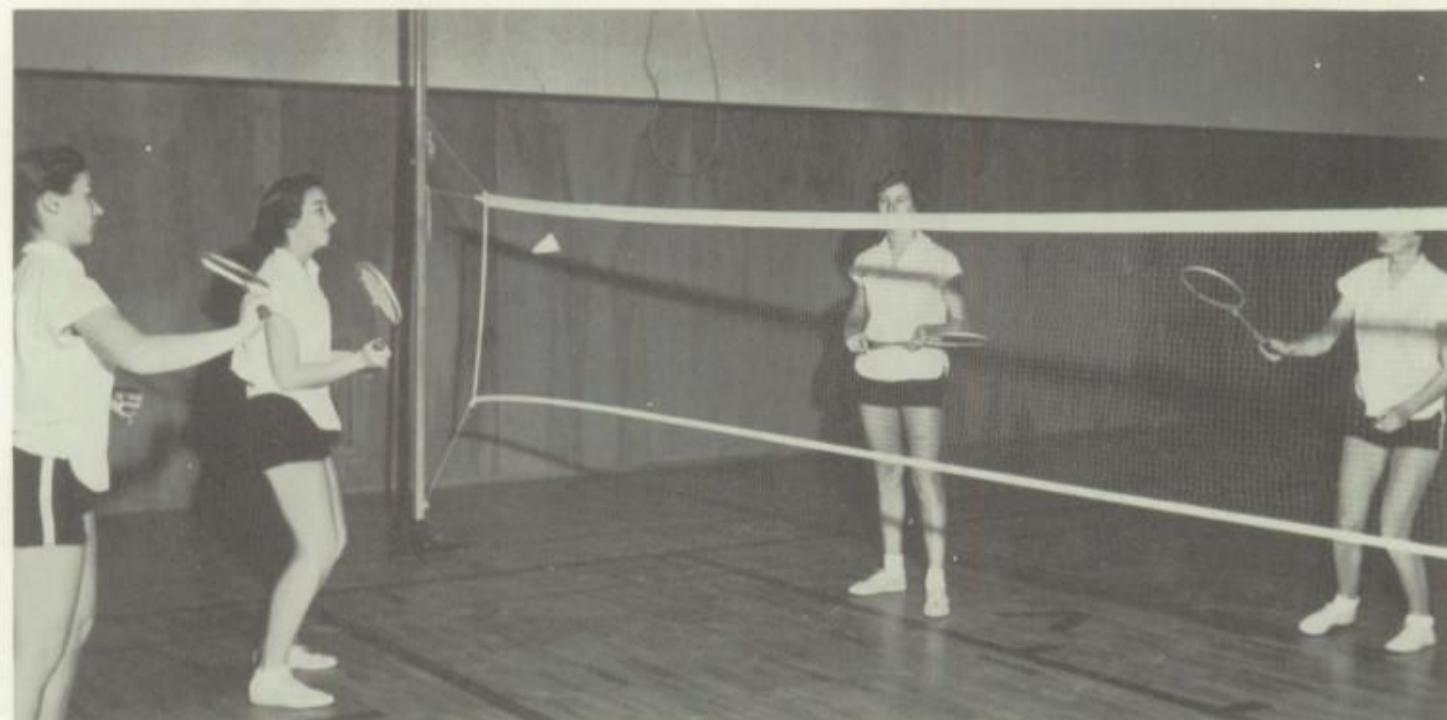

The "jumping jack" is a good "pepper-upper" for games that follow.

Top: In archery, practice and skill are essential for making a bull's-eye.

Bottom: For those with energy and a liking for the out-of-doors tennis is real fun.

Speed and accuracy make badminton an exciting indoor sport.

Energy and a competitive spirit make for a lively game of basketball.

Vim and vigor are an asset while playing speedball.

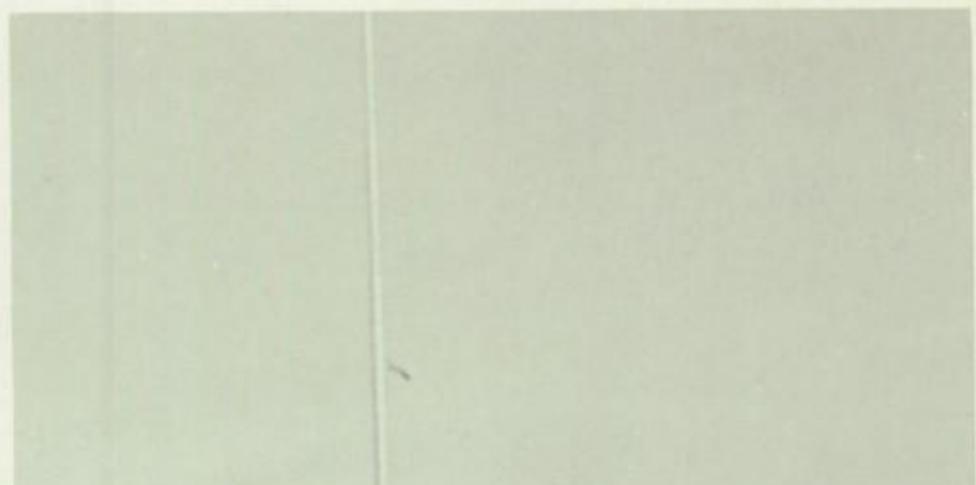

Golf is an excellent game for health and relaxation.

"Practice makes perfect" in the enjoyment of the trampoline.

It's a long stretch to those toes, but daily exercising promotes healthful living.

Teamwork and good sportsmanship make softball a popular spring sport.

The Girls' Phys. Ed. Modern Dance classes are for girls who enjoy expressing and composing dances to various kinds of music.

Orchesis is a club for those girls who have had a semester of modern dance and are interested in furthering their ability in dancing.

Wi-ca-kas—girls' Letter club—is for those girls who have been extra active in G.A.A. and who enjoy having a good time as a group, whether it be giving a party or an excursion to the mountains. Shown smiling above they are: bottom row, Arlynne Allison, Barbara Young, Sheridan Blythe and Marlee Alexander. Top row: Jo Ann Roberts, Barbara Stoltz, Jo Appleman, Mrs. Blott, sponsor; Karen Tooley, and Sue Miller.

"Circus Daze" was a successful Playday when everyone had a good time as Arcadia was host to Monrovia, California, and Bell Gardens High Schools.

Entertainment, school yells, mass exercises, and refreshments were enjoyed by all, as the rain forced out-door games to be cancelled.

LET'S LIVE

School and community life is alike in many ways. Activities in everyday life are important to all individuals. In the following section, the Arcadian salutes many interesting events held on campus this year, and recognizes the many groups which took part in planning and sponsoring these events.

PERSONALITY

THE IN

"Mal Harvis" and his mal-adjusted teen-agers were received by a most receptive audience.

An assembly of progressive jazz was presented by "We Three" Instrumental Trio.

Our outstanding A Cappella choir presented their annual Christmas program of carols and spirituals.

BEST ASSEMBLIES

Responsible for this year's fine assemblies is our assembly commission.

This pantomime act represents one of the outstanding features of Arcadia High's Exchange Assembly.

The San Gabriel Exchange assembly was just one of this type presented at A.H.S.

The Sno-Queens reigning over this year's Christmas dance were, left to right:
Lynn Heges, Carol Shelley, Annette Gish, George Ann Cameron.

"Midwinter Magic" was the theme set for this year's annual Christmas dance.

Amidst a background of snow flakes and multi-colored balloons,
Apache couple dance dreamily.

The annual crowning of the Prom Queen is a moment that can never be forgotten.

Hundreds of A.H.S. students attended this years third annual prom.

SPIRIT . . .

Annual Briar Patch Contest featured Paul Gillespie as winner.

HOME COMING

Lovely Queen Sheila Sanders, outstanding senior, elected by popular vote, reigned over Arcadia High School's first annual homecoming festivities.

The Sophomore class won the award for the most beautiful float with their display of the famous Apache Medicine Man.

The grand sweepstakes prize float, depicting "Shangri-La," the Junior Senior Prom, was entered by the Kiowas, senior girls service club.

"The Roast the Wild Cat Barbeque" started Arcadia High's Homecoming events off with a bang. Over 1,200 Apaches and returning Alumni attended the affair.

A menu of barbecued beef, baked beans, salad, rolls, milk, and cake was served by the Dycus caterers at the huge dinner.

After the Homecoming football game, hundreds of Apaches flocked to the Arcadia Armory where they enjoyed an evening of dancing and fun.

Dan & Janet

A pastime enjoyed at A.H.S. are our after game dances during football and basketball season.

DANCES AND

Judging by these Apaches happy faces, the annual "Get Acquainted Dance" was quite a success.

The newly formed Arcadia High Dance Band directed by Mr. Bowman has made several appearances at school dances this year.

.... FUN

A very happy crowd attended this after game dance; the reason, a basketball victory over M.D.

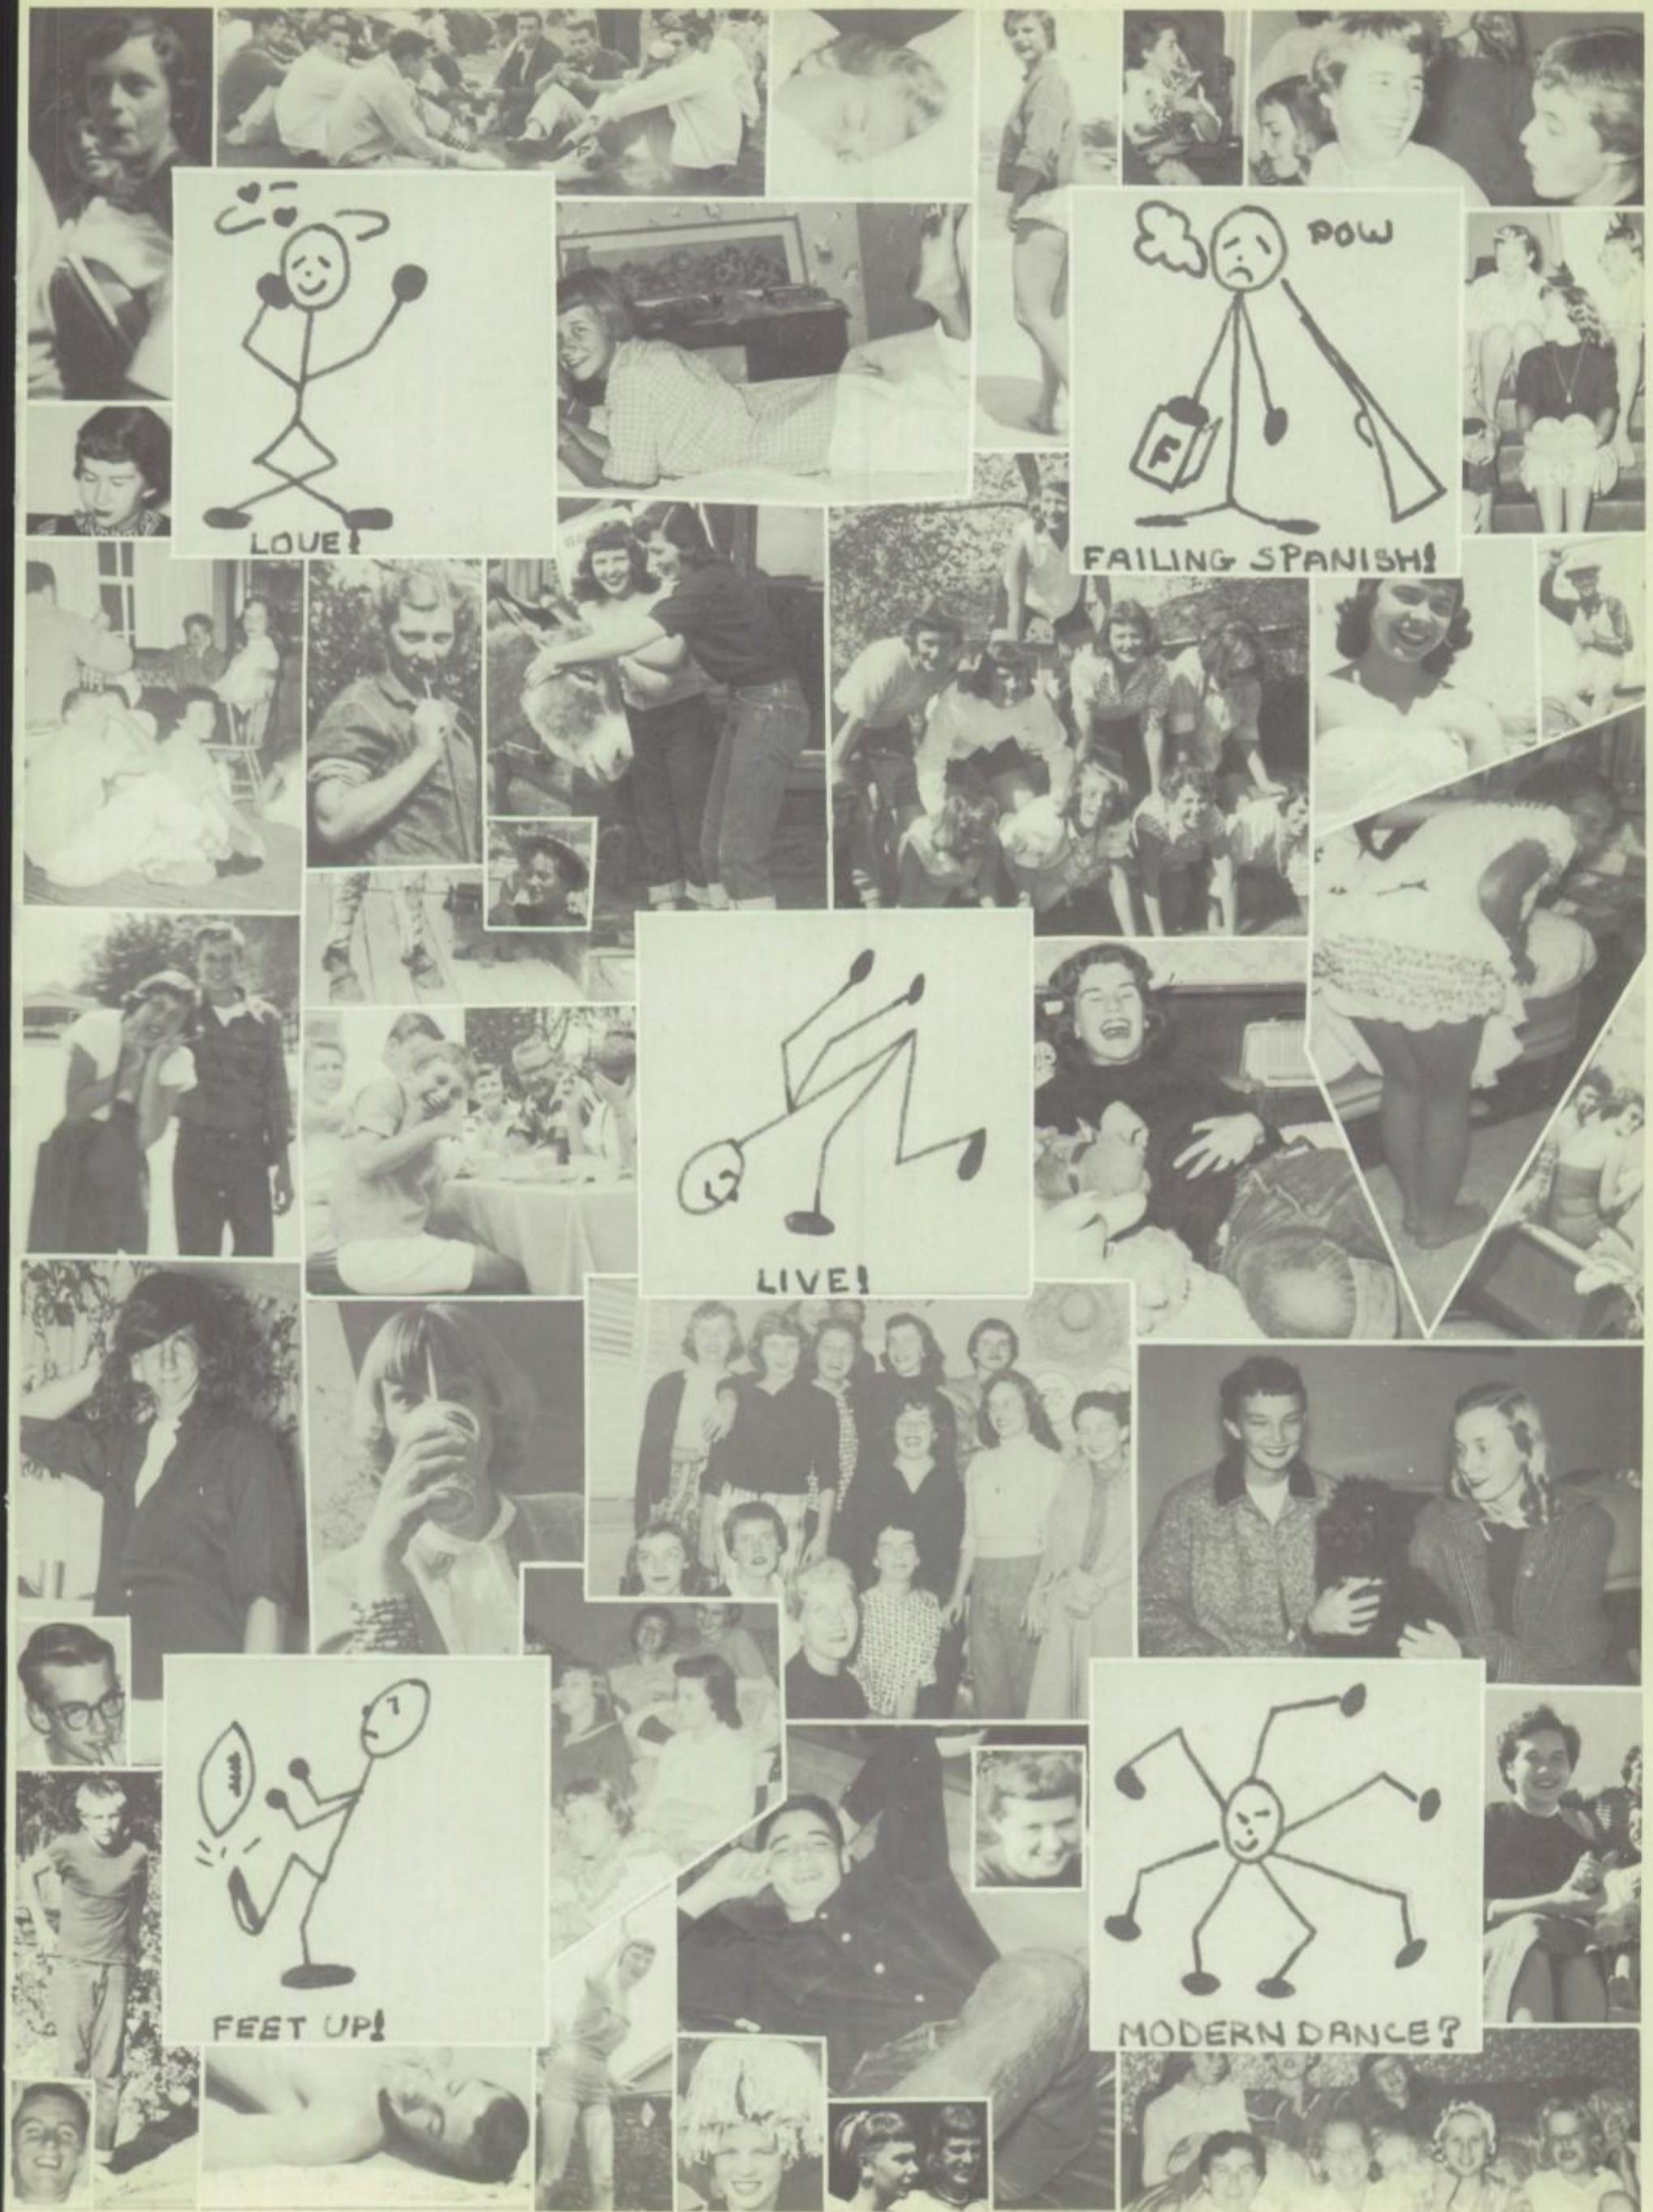

The most popular feature of all dances, the refreshment room!

Your friend,
Mayorie

Ronnie -
Sure was fun playin' ball with you this year. Best of luck to a swell guy who really knows the score
